Dear Friends,

I pray that you are doing well during this summer. We have all recently heard stories and seen photos of extremes of heat, wind, storms, wildfires and predictions of things to come. First, it was la Niña, and now there's the upcoming challenges of el Niño. Dave's dad always says that this is the way things have always been. If it's going to rain, it will rain; if it's going to be dry, it will be dry. He knows that the Lord is in control, and he reminds me often by his words and demeanor that we just need to trust in God every day, rest in Him, and be thankful.

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.
..... Psa. 63:1-3

My heart is especially grateful right now, because I was privileged to spend last week up at the Silver State Baptist Youth Camp in the Colorado mountains. During the last three years I have visited the camp at least one day, and been able to stay in a cabin for one full week. It never fails to be a great joy and encouragement! As always, my favorite part by far is being able to listen to pastors each morning and evening as they teach and preach the Scriptures. Those of us who love our Lord Jesus Christ desire to hear more of His Word, which teaches us, exhorts us and helps us through difficult times. For me personally, it helps bring me back into focus from the things that try to distract my heart and mind from the joy that the Lord has for me.

I must remind myself constantly to immerse myself in the Word through personal studies, faithful church attendance and special opportunities such as the camp. I'll never be too old to need to learn more. May the Lord use us all for His glory for as long as we live!

But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.
..... 2 Tim. 3:14-17

May the Lord richly bless you.
