

THE HOFFMAN FAMILY MISSIONARIES TO BELGIUM

Sept. 2, 2026

Hello from the Hoffman family,

It's hard to believe that summer is already almost over and September is here. The kids have started school up, much to their dismay. The leaves are changing and the days are getting a bit cooler over here. I'm glad we have a God that changes things up and lets us enjoy different seasons.

Summer in Europe is usually a slower season ministry wise. Everyone scatters to all parts of the world and church attendance tends to be low. This summer was no different, but everyone has come back and church is starting to fill up again. Even though we had a lot of people move away this year, others are coming in to take their place. We're not back to where we were at the beginning of the year, but we've had a very good attendance the last several weeks. Even the church outreach had a very good turnout last Monday night. It's been a blessing seeing the newer church people start to step up and fill in the gaps of the ones who've moved away. We're planning on having a big friends day at church in two weeks and many people in church are inviting their unsaved friends. So please pray for a good turn out on September 13!

We have found a temporary solution for the homeschooling situation. It will work for this year, but it's not going to be a long term solution moving forward. Belgium has made it a point to go after homeschooling families that have kids over sixth grade. Homeschooling is legal here, but they are making it so difficult that it's almost impossible. Each year we've been here, the situation has been more and more challenging, but the Lord has always helped us to continue to sneak by. It has been made clear to us that we are on borrowed time, and that we will have to make some difficult decisions before the next school year. We are trying to figure out what is the best long term solution for our family, but mostly for the kids. God is still using us here in the trenches in Belgium, and we have made decent headway, thank the Lord. While we still have a year to get this all figured out, there are still many difficult choices to be made, please pray for wisdom as we seek the Lord's will. Thank you for all you do for us, we are so grateful for every one of you.

In Christ,
